Guidelines and Policies

I have reviewed and understand that I must adhere to the Golfer's Code of Conduct at all times. Failure to do so could result in temporary and permanent loss of Fort Lee privileges and forfeiture of membership fees. I also understand all resignations must be made in writing, and cannot be backdated. Members resigning must wait at least one year before reapplying, or pay back dues for the months since lapse of membership. Health problems, longer than three months are considered on a case-by-case basis.
