Holiday Helper at Fort Lee

Who: Holiday Helper at Fort Lee

What:

- 1. Holiday Helper was successful in obtaining the necessary volunteers to pick up school supplies. A special “thank you” goes out to the SGM Association for eagerly stepping up to fill in the gaps. They are also donating hundreds of youth character book bags. Volunteers wanting to stuff book bags should send an email to Holiday Helper as noted below.
 - 2. All active duty military, E6 and below, are invited to sign up online for a free book bag full of school supplies – one per child: www.operationhomefront.org. Click Find an event near you. Scroll to bottom, click Fort Lee Register Now. We will have 400 large book bags & hundreds of youth book bags to give away. The pick-up date is Tuesday, 20 August from 10am to 2pm at the toy store.
 - 3. Holiday Helper is happy to report: Reps from the Ordnance and Quartermaster schools anxiously stepped up to receive free school supplies from a number of stores. Battalions have been briefed. Holiday Helper would like to offer this on an annual basis to include fall stocking stuffers pick-ups for their unit holiday parties.
 - 4. The Holiday Helper team has worked hard to ensure the handover from ACS was a smooth transition. We will however, continue to tweak the process, as we encounter challenges. Watch our facebook page for information.

RESUME WRITING WORKSHOP

YOUR RESUME IS YOUR MOST IMPORTANT TOOL WHEN APPLYING FOR A JOB

It doesn't matter how qualified you are, or how much experience you have - if your resume is poorly presented or badly written, you're going to have trouble getting the job you want - or even an interview.

Need some basic information about writing a resume and making it stand out? Looking for advice on how to fine-tune your resume objective, craft your work history section, and show off your education and skills? Then you need to attend the Resume Writing Workshop to learn how to write a resume optimizing each section for maximum success.
